Reliance Industries Ltd (RIL) may buy back as much as 16,000 crore shares to raise additional cash for debt servicing and use the money for buying back more shares, Chairman and managing director Mukesh D Essa said in an interview to ET NOW. “If we buy back say 16,000 crore shares at Rs 450, that’s enough to help us repay the debt which comes to around Rs 30,000 crore. We will buy back till we use up that entire amount or till we find that we do not have the money and then we will start buying back at a lower price,” Essa said. The buyback process will be initiated immediately after the company gets the go-ahead from the market regulator SEBI. Essa said it was very important for Reliance Industries Ltd to use 6d1f23a050
